Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Cycle C

“Who is my neighbor?”

PASTOR’S NOTE

In announcing the upcoming charity Golf Tournament on Friday, September 10th at Worthington Manor Golf Club, I shared with you some information which was incorrect. I apologize that all of the information was not correct. The correct information is that the golf tournament is being held in honor of our parishioner Ken Hartsek, who is courageously battling ALS Disease, better known as Lou Gehrig’s disease but all the monies raised that day will be given to the ALS Foundation. Registration information for the golf tournament can be found in this bulletin under the Knights of Columbus section “Benefit Golf Tournament”.

The paving of the lane in front of the Church and the Parish Office Building has been completed and the upper parking lot has been completed. Hopefully, by the time you read this note, the metal roof on our new Multi-Purpose Building will have been fully installed and the brick garage (to store the tractor and other equipment) adjoining the pump house will have been completed. Also, the foundation for our new St. Ignatius Parish sign will have been completed.

I thank all who have supported this effort, through the gift of treasure, time, talent and prayers. The dedication of our new building is going to be on Sunday, September 19th after the 12:00noon Mass with Archbishop O’Brien.

Blessings,
Fr. Mike
