Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Cycle C

“The harvest is great but the laborers are few.”

PASTOR’S NOTE

We had a very successful Parish Yard Sale on June 25-26th! A total profit of $6,576.63 was raised from the Yard Sale. There are many people to thank - the parishioners who donated items for the sale; those who sorted the items and priced them; the parishioners who worked inside and outside as cashiers; the parishioners who helped box up the unsold items on Sunday afternoon; the Boy Scouts who helped to transport bought merchandise to customers’ cars; and the parish staff members who worked alongside parishioners.

On a hot muggy, June 28th, fourteen of our high school young people continued their preparation to become peer ministers to their fellow youth. The young people attended an all day long ministry team building retreat, which included a ropes course and other exercises at the Bar T Ranch on Roderick Road here in Urbana. I was impressed with our young people’s enthusiasm and joy! I thank Carol Smith for organizing the day and thank Susan Morgan for being the second adult present.

Good things continue to happen here at St. Ignatius!

Our Vacation Bible School (VBS) begins this Tuesday and runs through Friday. Please pray for our children who will be participating in VBS as well as the volunteers helping.

Have a safe and happy Fourth of July weekend!

Fr. Mike
