Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Cycle C

“God said to him,
‘You fool, this night
your life will be demanded of you.’”

PASTOR’S NOTE

On July 21-22 eight of our young people joined with a hundred other Catholic youth from Frederick and Washington Counties to participate in a Workcamp experience called “I-Serve” which was based at St. Mary’s Parish in Hagerstown, MD. The young people worked at various sites including a local food bank, senior citizens housing sites and the Boys and Girls Club. I went out on Thursday night for Reconciliation and to concelebrate mass with them. I was again impressed by the enthusiasm and the joyfulness of our young people in sharing their time and talents.

I thank Carol Smith for organizing our parish’s participation and Cathy Holman and Stan Hess for accompanying our young people.

Have you noticed how the entrance to our church in Ijamsville and our Country Church in Urbana are looking better? I thank John Trollinger for the weeding and trimming of the shrubbery to our Church and Rich Terselic for his work outside our Country Church and the laying of mulch.

I also want to thank the Dustbusters, the men and women who clean our church either on Monday mornings or Monday evenings. They help to keep our Church looking good while saving our parish thousands of dollars.

Parishioners often ask me “Fr. Mike, will the building be ready on time?” Yes, the work on our new building is on schedule and with the Holy Spirit’s continued help the building will be blessed and dedicated on Sunday, September 19th, by Archbishop O’Brien after the 12:00 noon Liturgy. This building is a gift of many people’s prayers, talents, treasure and work. We all look forward to its completion!

Please mark your calendar for our Parish Picnic on Sunday, August 22nd at Pinecliff Park from 2:00pm to 5:00pm. There will be a final picnic planning meeting on Wednesday, August 4th at 7:30pm in the Parish Center.

Blessings,
Fr. Mike
